From the Principal's desk

Dear Parents and Carers,

Congratulations KM for winning the Attendance party. Their class has had 96.42% student attendance this term. Outstanding! KM will join me to have a party this Friday at recess to celebrate. Overall our school attendance has improved substantially. Most classes are sitting in the 90% + for the term with the remainder of classes sitting in the high 80s. Congratulations and well done everyone.

Students and staff at school have been incredibly busy over the last week and will continue to enjoy many events until school breaks for the holidays on Friday. On Monday, students from our support classes participated in the Special Education Multi Sports Day. It was a fabulous day and the students loved it. Yesterday we enjoyed celebrating Multicultural Day with an assembly, parades and pop up stalls. We were thrilled to watch Yarob Haddad, a valued staff member, presented with the Humanitarian Awards 2015, Rural and Regional Award NSW Service for the Treatment of Torture and Trauma Survivors. Mayor Denise Knight enjoyed being part of the day with our students.

Today we held our Personal Best (PB) Assembly and parent/teacher interviews. Tomorrow is Rewards Day (mufti) and on Friday we farewell Mr Woodham.

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the staff for their continued commitment, care and passion in making sure our school and students have the very best opportunities. Enjoy the school holidays. School resumes for students on Tuesday 14 July 2015.

FROM THE LIBRARY

All books are now due back as it is the end of term. Thank you to all who have already returned their books. Please check your house for any books with the school barcode on them.

Last Thursday was a very exciting day for all our K-Year 2 students.

Their free "Books in Homes" bag of goodies were presented to all in a special assembly. Many thanks to the "Books in Homes" people and the Newcastle Permanent Charitable Foundation for their fantastic support of such an event. Hopefully all students have shown off their new books that they can keep FOREVER!
